

Who Else Wants A Share Of This Multi-Million Rand Classified Ad Industry?

See here how...

It's no secret - Classified Ads has been a trusted way for selling goods and services by individuals and companies for 100's of years.

In fact, the first ad in an English newspaper was printed in 1625.

Today classified websites are gaining popularity faster than ever, especially in niche markets that zoom in on very specific types of products or services.

These sites generate huge amounts of traffic and passive income for its owners.

You must have seen them: OLX, Gumtree, JunkMail and others. These sites make millions a year for its shareholders, and they are still growing fast. For example, OLX now operates in 96 countries, Gumtree in 76 cities and in 11 countries.

Usually advertisers place free ads and then have an option to upgrade their ads to a premium level by paying a small fee.

Buying premium ads are becoming a cost-effective and popular way for companies to advertise where visitors and buyers already hang out.

Earn Instantly: In More Than One Way.

When you buy your own classified ad business (site) you will get everything delivered to you on a silver platter. Your site will work perfectly from day one.

Here are the simple steps that will insure you earn instantly:

- Visitors will create free ad listings on your site. No limit's – they can create as many ads as they like.
- You will have the option to approve ads before they go live. This will give you the opportunity to release a standard congratulations email to your users and ask them to upgrade to a premium option if they like. Many will, earning you profits from those ads.

But There Is More:

- You will also be able to sell banner ads on your site for an extra income. Banner ads are fixed image ads that display products or special offers, usually on your site home page, in the sidebars or footers.

Or Get Paid By Google:

- You can, and should, once your site has a nice following of unique visitors, apply at Google to place their ads on your site in terms of their Google AdSense program. In this way Google will pay you directly for providing the ad space. It is a very easy and smart way to earn money.

Specialty Services:

- Another smart way to earn from a classified site like this is to sell article space, press releases, video space and product information [write-ups]. Companies pay a lot of money for this type of advertising.

News and product articles like these give companies extra online exposure to launch new products or services necessary to succeed. You will learn later how all this work.

The form can be used with every single ad, which helps both you and the ad owner getting more and more leads.

So, it is also easier than ever to notify your leads about new ads, updates, and other info by sending emails and start converting them into paying customers.

"Find what you are looking for" is our motto here.
